EDITORIAL NOTE

I am joyful to announce that the International Journal of Medical Advances and Discoveries is a journal and that gave me opportunity to bring forward the achievements of the journal in the year 2021. As we know that IJMAD is the newly coined journal, it is under development and growing fast to be indexed by various indexing agencies. The full issue was published by IJMAD at the time and the preprints were also dispatched and released online within 30 days after the article was published online. IJMAD accept all types of articles, including Research papers, case studies, review papers, brief commentaries, mini analysis etc. on medical.

International Journal of Medical Advances and Discoveries is an open-access Peer-Reviewed journal that seeks to publish the latest and excellent research papers, reviews and letters in all fields related to the subjects of medicine. The scientific validity and merit of submissions will be evaluated.

Researchers from all over the world are invited to submit novel research and thoughts to the publication. We believe that by publishing in this magazine, academics will have a suitable platform to demonstrate the importance of their research effort. I take this to show my gratitude to thank ISJ group of publications for its mission in making the journey to take this on-line publication of the journal to a global audience. I am confident that this magazine will better serve the scientific community. I'd want to invite our open access biology community to contribute original research to ensure the journal's future success. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of IJMAD, for their support in bringing out yet another volume of International Journal of Medical Advances and Discoveries and look forward to their unrelenting support. We thank our peer reviewers for taking the time and effort to provide thoughtful feedback, and we endeavour to express our gratitude to them. Every year, we send letters thanking our top reviewers for their contributions

International Journal of Medical Advances and Discoveries is a fineness quality journal devoted to the management of time and completes all the work on writing any article in a given period of time. Because each piece must be published online within 45 days of receipt, the total time frame is 45 days. For numerous processes like as quality control, peer review, and article processing, it takes 4 to 5 weeks to publish. Within 14 days, quality checks and peer review processes are completed, and the article is published within 7 days after reviewers and editors accepting the paper.

Finally, I would like to welcome you, our readers to this promising new journal of IJMAD. Hope you will find pleasant reading and also challenging ideas from this journal. Happy and pleasant reading!
